

Braden D. Lamb

Cell: 206-554-1867
bdl@chiefsheepy.com
56 Waverly St. #1
Malden, MA 02148

Skills

- Microsoft Office
- Adobe CS3
- Final Cut Pro
- 3D Studio Max
- Maya 3D

Teaching

- Seattle Public Schools - Seattle, WA: October - December 2005.
Prepared and executed animation project for middle school students.
- Coyote Jr. High - Seattle, WA: January - March, April - June 2004, May - June 2005.
Assisted with instruction and provided teaching material for middle school level animation classes.
- Bertschi Elementary - Seattle, WA: July 12 - 16 2004.
Taught summer moviemaking course for elementary students.

Education

- University of Washington Extension - Seattle, WA: Spring 2005.
Completed certificated course in Game Animation, using 3DS Max.
- Mesmer Animation Labs - Seattle, WA: Fall 2003.
Completed two certificated courses in the use of Maya 3D software.
- Bard College - Annandale-on-Hudson, NY: Fall 1999 - Spring 2003.
Received a Bachelor of Arts degree for Film, with emphasis on video and animation, Spring 2003.
Studied animation techniques, life-drawing, and Medieval art and architecture
Studied linguistics, history of the English language, and epic and heroic literature
Studied modern Icelandic language in a course held at University of Minnesota and University of Iceland
Wrote and illustrated "Apostrophe," a surrealist serial comic strip, as well as editorial cartoons and clipart for student paper, the Observer (2000-2003)